Friday Morning Yoga – Spaces Available

Would you benefit from a little time and space to reset after the school run? A chance to breathe, move freely and build resilience through mindful yoga practice?

A few spaces are currently available in Yoga Rise, a friendly Ugborough-based class held Fridays 9:10–10:10am. The breath-led approach helps you move with ease, build strength and create a sense of calm.

Later in the morning, Haven Yoga (10:45am-12noon Moorhaven) offers an even deeper, more nourishing practice, focused on restoring your energy for the day — and the weekend — ahead.

St George's Church – Easter fun!

Rev Oli Long would like to invite children and families along to St George's church for some Easter fun on Good Friday 3rd April. They have organised some interactive activities from 1030am, including an Easter Egg hunt and refreshments!

There's more on Easter Sunday in church at 9.30am, with a service that's suitable for families.

"Where's your Head At?" is a Children and Young People's Open delivered by The Box in partnership with Arts University Plymouth. IT invites young artists aged 0-25 to submit original work exploring the theme of 'art and emotion'. Entries close at 5pm on Sunday 3rd May 2026. Prizes up for grabs include £150 to spend in The Box's shop and the chance to have your work displayed at The Box this summer.
